The SortWizard is a stock screening tool designed to satisfy the needs of the discriminating active trading professional. It is a time tested and stable third generation product that has been refined over a decade. The SortWizard was developed and continues to have improvements added to it by a team of engineers that have been developing real-time 24/7 control systems for production automation for over twenty years. Our engineers are involved in the stock market and trading and understand the requirements of traders. The design, features, functionality and capabilities of the SortWizard are the result of many years of research and trading experience but, most importantly, user input. We are always looking for new ideas and ways to improve the product.

Our design objective is to continually develop a high performance tool empowering you to create unique customized searches that result in trade opportunities with a competitive "edge" in the market. As a result, you can setup and modify proven strategies presented in many respected top trader's publications and training seminars or tailor them to your own trading style. We have also paid special attention to resource drains on the datafeed server, bandwidth and your computer to minimize the impact on the performance of your trading platform when using the SortWizard.

To help you get started quickly there are the Learning Center tutorials in the SortWizard web site and a number of preconfigured sample searches and templates included when you install the software. When you are ready to experiment, then sharpen your skills with more advanced searches found in the Resource Center. In addition, telephone and custom programming support are also available.
